

Infection Control Guidelines

All staff must wash hands before and after every patient interaction.

Personal protective equipment (PPE) including gloves and masks must be worn in isolation wards.

Patients with contagious infections are placed in isolation rooms with restricted visitor access.

Medical equipment must be sterilized between uses. Any staff member showing symptoms of infection must report to occupational health immediately and avoid direct patient contact.